

For the curious traveller, here is a suggestion for the best routes to take, amidst modernity and tradition, to discover the high quality artisan crafts and other excellent features that bring life to the territories of Deruta, Torgiano, Marsciano, Collazione and Todi. This is an opportunity to experience a territory with a strong artisan vocation, in direct contact with the characters that populate it and the hard work that animates it, going into shops and laboratories, manipulating materials and observing production techniques.
