

Perugino, divine painter Pietro Vannucci, is the ambassador of a journey between the places of Trasimeno which inspired his works "from the angelic et very sweet."

Let us guide you through the images as brush strokes paint hills, plains, trees, streams, villages of Castiglione del Lago, Città della Pieve, Magione, Paciano, Panicale, Passignano sul Trasimeno, Piegaro and Tuoro sul Trasimeno.

Perceive the ongoing dialogue between the art and the landscape, gather the traits of past history which continues to live in the present, in architecture, in the towers, in the palaces, abbeys: silent witnesses to the fervent cultural activity that has affected these lands.
