

With Tipicamenteumbria, the Special Agency Promocamera, which I represent as President, it wants to contribute to promote our region, in Italy and worldwide through the dissemination of the typical peculiarities of the area, through a form of young communication, timely, immediate and who knows how to create participation, interaction and emotions. For this reason, I invite all those who will devote some time to browse our site, respond to polls, to report "like", to let us know your opinions, comments.

Tipicamenteumbria not only wants to communicate, wants to talk with everyone, Umbrian people and not, to share everything of beautiful and typical our region can express. We want to listen to YOU, Dear Navigator, we want to take part in what YOU live, think, and love in Umbria. I invite you, therefore, to join us at www.facebook.com / tipicamenteumbria to stay in touch with us and send us your suggestions. For our part, we will do everything to charm with our excellence and, through the newsletter, updating you on the many events, large or small but always interesting, of our Umbria.
